

Claim #158 Nancy Adams

Claim No. 158.

Under Article 4. Treaty of 14th June 1866. with Creek Indians.

The undersigned, Nancy Adams, aged 40, a Free woman of Color of the Creek Nation, widow of Ben Colly, deceased - being duly sworn and examined, deposes and says. Whilst living with her husband, at their home on Lane Creek, Creek Nation, and sometime in the month of September 1861, they necessarily abandoned the same, on account of the War of the Rebellion, and fled with the loyal refugees under the Chief Apothle-hola, across the plains to Kansas. - Afterwards, they went to Gibson, where her husband served as Interpreter in the 1st Indian Regiment until the close of the war, when they returned to the Nation, where her husband died in March last (1869.) leaving her Sole Administratrix of his estate. This deponent further says, that, at the time of her flight from home as aforesaid, her said (deceased) husband and herself, jointly, owned and possessed, and necessarily abandoned and lost all the property hereinafter enumerated, and that the same was not, nor was any part thereof ever recovered by this deponent, or by her husband prior to his death. To say:
